

2020 Mayor's Awards for the Arts

Bill McMurray, Mayor
St. Joseph, Missouri

Dr. Melody Smith, President
Allied Arts Council

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS

Below are the categories for the twenty-ninth annual Mayor's Awards for the Arts.

1. Artist of the Year

An established individual artist (in any discipline) for artistic excellence and singular efforts in contributing to St. Joseph's cultural vitality (i.e., a choreographer or a dancer, a sculptor or a curator, a composer, a musician etc.).

2. Arts Educator of the Year

For an outstanding contribution to arts education in St. Joseph, Missouri by an instructor at the K-12 or post-secondary level. The award will recognize development or execution of a curriculum or program that has demonstrated outstanding results by their students. The nominee may be an employee or volunteer for a school district, or an arts organization.

3. Youth Artist

For an artist 19 years of age or under who has demonstrated talent and achievement in one or more artistic disciplines.

4. Organizational Achievement in the Arts

This award will recognize an organization or business that excels in supporting and/or enhancing the arts through contributions of time, talent or funding.

5. Individual Leadership

For an individual business or civic leader who has greatly contributed to one or more arts or cultural organizations in St. Joseph, Missouri. The award recognizes dedication above and beyond professional responsibilities that has made a measurable impact on St. Joseph's cultural landscape. The award takes into consideration contributions over a long period of time, but emphasizes recent contributions.

6. Outstanding Volunteer

For outstanding contributions of a volunteer to one or more arts organizations in St. Joseph, Missouri for service within the last year. Volunteer work may include consulting, fundraising, organization, or hands-on contributions.
